

Funding available to create jobs for young unemployed people

Community Jobs Scotland (CJS) is seeking applications from third sector employers in Fife who are able to create jobs to support young unemployed people.

Up to £5,000 funding is available for each job lasting 39 weeks for 16 to 17-year-olds and 26 weeks for 18 to 24-year-olds.

The majority of jobs created are for young people aged 16-19 years, however jobs can also be created for:

- young people aged 20 to 24 years with additional barriers
- young people aged 16 to 24 years with disabilities
- young people aged 16 to 24 years currently in custody
- young care leavers aged 16 to 24 years

How to get involved

If you're interested in hosting a CJS employee, just fill out these forms and return them to communityjobsscotland@scvo.org.uk as soon as possible or by noon on

What previous Community Jobs Scotland employers say

Janine Rennie from Open Secret:

"Community Jobs Scotland has been a fantastic experience for our organisation. Having Colin as part of the team, with his enthusiasm, creativity and drive has meant that the people using our services have a much improved quality of life."

Ali Grant from Mayfield & Easthouses Y2K Project:

"CJS has enabled us to train a young person and then retain them as an employee - like 'growing your own staff'"
