

Financial Harm

Fife Adult Protection Committee host a staff conference

Thursday 6th November from 9.15am-1.30pm
at the Gilvenbank Hotel, Glenrothes

Aim: To raise awareness of the range and prevalence of financial harm and to showcase some best practice examples of how it can be tackled. The event will promote the Fife Inter-agency Adult Support & Protection Guidance, the new Financial Harm Guidance, and the Large Scale Investigations Inter-agency Procedure.

Presentations by:

- Graham Vance: Scottish Business Resilience Centre: National priority project looking at financial harm.
- Katherine Hart – Trading Standards: Fife Trading Standards pilot project with the Royal Mail regarding identification and reporting of addresses targeted by scam mail. This is set to become a national initiative.
- DI Stevie Hamilton: Police Scotland—Operation Nominate—breaking a bogus workmen ring targeting adults at risk.
- Suit and Pace present 'Cuckoo's Nest' - a drama monologue which highlights financial harm within a family setting.

Each presentation will be followed by related discussion.

To book, call Shirley Black on: 03451 55 55 55 ext 442654
or email: apc.training@fife.gov.uk
Please note, places will be limited.

