

Identifying discrimination and identifying the next steps Free Training Event - Thursday 25th February 2016: The Vine Conference Centre, Dunfermline.

The Equality and Human Rights Commission is running a free training event on Thursday 25th February in Dunfermline, aimed at advice agencies and third sector organisations.

By the end of this training session you will:

- Have an overview of the Equality Act 2010
- Understand and be able to identify the different forms of discrimination.
- Know how to advise clients who may have experienced discrimination.
- Understand the legal powers of the Commission and how we can assist you in your work.

Please let us know by Thursday 18th February if you can attend.

Places may still be available after this time, contact us for further information.

Training details:

Who? This event is ideally for advisors and caseworkers working within the advice and third sectors.

Cost? Free.

Where? The Vine Conference Centre, Dunfermline.

When? Thursday 25th February 2016.

Time: 10 AM – 2PM. Registration 9:30 AM. Lunch will be provided.

Is this event for you? / How to book your places? - Send an email with your details to equalityactscotland@equalityhumanrights.com (or phone Kyle Mulholland: 0141 228 5925) including any requirements you may have such as access, dietary or communication support.

If you book any less than 14 days before the event every effort will be made but it may not be possible to meet your access requirements.