This workshop is delivered in partnership with

Children's Rights

Training for Youth Workers & Volunteers

The training session will give an overview of children's rights and provide a greater understanding of working with children using a rights based approach.

The training will encourage staff and volunteers to feel more confident in incorporating a rights based approach in their own setting with children and young people and will provide ideas, tools and techniques to support this.

Outcomes – participants will:

- have an increased understanding of children's rights.
- have an increased understanding of rights based approaches in working with children.
- have improved confidence in delivering sessions with children using a rights based approach.
- have ideas, tools and techniques to take away and use within their own work or volunteer setting.

This event is FREE for our member groups and organisations who are part of the VYN Network.

(The cost for other groups is £15 per person).

The Children's Rights workshop will be held on:
