

Are you dyslexic or think you are dyslexic? Age 16 or over and live in or near Fife? Many dyslexics are also creative individuals. If you would like to find out more about being creative then the Unique Dyslexic Get Creative is for you.

Come along to a free workshop on 2nd August 2014 at Furniture Plus, Castle Business Park, Queensferry Road, Dunfermline from 10 am to 4 pm where you will learn how to upcycle an old piece of furniture.

Furniture Plus is easily accessible by public transport and has on-site parking. Lunch will be provided free of charge. Travel expenses will also be paid. If you have caring responsibilities, some help with the cost of this is available also.

This "Trash to Treasure" workshop is an introduction to upcycling, teaching you painting and simple upholstery techniques that will enable you to revamp a small of piece of furniture and turn it into a thing of beauty. The workshop, furniture and all resources are provided free of charge. This workshop is being run by Clarabella Christie and Furniture Plus organised and funded by Unique Dyslexic Get Creative.

Places are limited to 10 participants. For more information on this workshop or to book a place please contact Steve McCue:

E mail: steve.mccue@uniquedyslexic.com Tel: 01592 756 187

You are invited to visit our Unique Dyslexic Get Creative web site at:

<http://www.uniquedyslexic.com/>

Free dyslexia screening available to anyone attending the workshop

Unique Dyslexic Get Creative from Dyslexia Pathways CIC

